A telegram forwarded by the Berlin Regional Railway Headquarters on 24 February 1953 states that, effective on a date still to be specified, the operation of express trains [REDACTED] will be cancelled and express trains [REDACTED] will operate via Wildpark, Seddin, and Schoenfeld. 25X1

[REDACTED] Comment. The cancellation of express trains is primarily connected with the restriction of travel facilities to and from Berlin but must also be viewed in the light of the planned improvement of the freight service at the expense of the passenger service. 25X1
